

Guide: Why Did Budget Charge Me $450? Full Explanation

If you've noticed a $450 charge from Budget Car Rental on your statement, you're not alone +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354. Many customers search this exact question after returning a rental car +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354. In most cases, this charge is not random—it's tied to specific rental agreement policies, most commonly smoking or cleaning fees +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

Below, we break down the most common reasons the Budget may charge $450, what it means, and what you can do next +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

Common Reasons Budget May Charge $450

1. Smoking or Odor Cleaning Fee (Most Common Reason)

The budget has a strict non-smoking policy for all rental vehicles +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354. If the vehicle is returned with evidence of smoking, customers may be charged a significant cleaning fee +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

If the Return Agent finds evidence that the car has been smoked in and/or it smells of smoke, the customer will be informed that they might be assessed a cleaning fee of up to $450 +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354. The customer will then be given a receipt as per standard procedure +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

This fee covers:

- Deep interior cleaning
- Odor removal treatments
- Lost rental time while the car is being cleaned

Even if no cigarettes are visible, smoke odor alone can trigger the charge +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

2. Excessive Cleaning Beyond Normal Use

While basic dirt is expected, Budget may charge extra if the vehicle is returned with:

- Strong odors (smoke, marijuana, pet smells)
- Stains on seats or carpets
- Ash, burns, or residue inside the car

These situations often fall under the same cleaning fee category, which can reach $450 depending on severity +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

3. Damage-Related Fees (Less Common)

In some cases, the $450 charge may relate to minor interior damage, such as:

- Burn marks
- Melted surfaces
- Upholstery damage caused by smoking materials

Damage fees are usually documented and itemized separately +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

How to Confirm Why You Were Charged

If the reason for the charge is unclear, the fastest way to get details is to contact Budget directly +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

 Budget Customer Support: +1 877 684 4354

When calling, have the following ready:

- Rental agreement number
- Return date and location
- Copy of your receipt or bank statement

They can explain the charge and provide documentation if available +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

Can You Dispute a $450 Budget Charge?

Yes, you can request a review if:

- You believe the charge was applied in error
- You did not smoke in the vehicle
- Someone else drove the car and caused the issue

However, keep in mind:

- Budget relies on return inspection reports
- Odor-based charges are harder to dispute than visible damage
- Receipts are issued as part of their standard procedure

If needed, contacting your credit card provider may be an additional option—but it's best to speak with Budget first +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.

How to Avoid a $450 Cleaning Fee in the Future

- Never smoke or vape in a rental car
- Avoid transporting items with strong odors
- Return the vehicle clean and aired out
- Inspect the car at pickup and report any existing smells immediately

A quick check before leaving the rental lot can save you hundreds later +1 877 ÷ 684 ÷ 4354.
