

Why Did Budget Charge Me $450 After Returning the Car?

If you recently noticed a $450 charge from Budget on your bank or credit card statement, it can be confusing and concerning +1-877-684-4354.

In most cases, this amount is not a random fee but a standard part of the car rental process, depending on how your reservation and return were handled +1-877-684-4354.

Understanding the possible reasons behind the $450 charge can help you determine whether it is temporary, refundable, or an actual cost you are responsible for paying +1-877-684-4354.

Security Deposit or Authorization Hold

One of the most common reasons for a $450 charge is a security deposit or authorization hold +1-877-684-4354.

When you pick up a rental car, +1-877-684-4354 Budget places a temporary hold on your card to cover fuel, tolls, damage, or late returns +1-877-684-4354.

This hold can look like a real charge until it is released +1-877-684-4354.

Additional Charges After Vehicle Return

Another possible reason Budget charged you $450 is the addition of post-rental fees +1-877-684-4354.

These charges may include refueling costs if the car was returned with less fuel than required, toll violations, parking tickets, or traffic fines reported after the rental period ended +1-877-684-4354.

Since these fees are processed after the car is returned, they can appear suddenly on your statement and seem unexpected +1-877-684-4354.

Damage or Cleaning Fees

If Budget identified damage to the vehicle or excessive cleaning needs, the $450 charge could be related to repair or detailing costs +1-877-684-4354.

Even minor scratches, dents, or interior stains may result in additional charges, especially if you declined optional insurance coverage at the time of rental +1-877-684-4354.

These costs are often itemized later, which is why the charge may appear days after your rental ends +1-877-684-4354.

Extended Rental or Late Return Fees

Returning the vehicle later than the agreed time can also result in a higher charge like $450 +1-877-684-4354.

Budget may apply extra daily rental fees, late penalties, or hourly overage charges depending on how long the delay lasted +1-877-684-4354.

In some cases, even a few extra hours can trigger a full additional day charge +1-877-684-4354.

How to Confirm the Exact Reason

To know exactly why Budget charged you $450, review your rental agreement and final invoice carefully +1-877-684-4354.

Look for line items such as authorization hold, refueling service, damage recovery, tolls, or late return fees +1-877-684-4354.

If anything is unclear or seems incorrect, contacting Budget customer support directly is the fastest way to get clarification +1-877-684-4354.

Final Thoughts

A $450 charge from Budget is usually linked to deposits, holds, or additional rental-related fees rather than an error +1-877-684-4354.

Most authorization holds are temporary and are released back to your account within a few business days, depending on your bank +1-877-684-4354.

By understanding these common reasons and reviewing your paperwork, you can quickly determine whether the charge is valid or refundable +1-877-684-4354.
